

Member Protection Officer

Employment Type

The Member Protection Officer of Weightlifting Tasmania is voluntary role.

Position Objectives

The role of the Member Protection Officer is to assist the Board of Weightlifting Tasmanian implement and adhere to the Member Protection Policy of the Australian Weightlifting Federation.

Organisational Relationships

The Member Protection Officer reports the Board of Weightlifting Tasmania.

Tasks

The tasks of the Member Protection Officer are to:

1. Provide advice to the Board on the content and implementation of the AWF Member Protection Policy.
2. Promulgate the codes of behaviour required via the WTI website and social media platforms.
3. Make the membership of Weightlifting Tasmania aware of your appointment as Member Protection Officer and provide a brief overview of your role in receiving complaints and the procedure to be followed.
4. Publicise the online training available at Sport Integrity Australia for Child Protection, Discrimination and Harassment.
5. Collect data on coaches and officials working with children and inform the Board of those who do not have a current Working with Vulnerable People card,